

Thursday 27th April 2017
ILAS (Institute for Lifecourse and Society), NUI Galway
#PPIConferenceGalway

	Opening session – tea/coffee, sign in, select workshop from 9.30
10.00	Opening address	Prof Tim O'Brien, Dean of College of Medicine, Nursing &amp; Health Sciences , NUI Galway
10.10	Embedding PPI: Driving culture change in a large organisation	Katie Scott, Cancer Research UK
10.40	Collaborative to participant-led research: Parental separation, divorce and family change for children and young people	Dr Ann O'Kelly, UNESCO Child & Family Research Centre, NUI Galway and the Family Mediation Service, Legal Aid Board
11.00	James Lind Alliance: setting research priorities	Dr Sandra Galvin, HRB Trials Methodology Research Network Jimmy Glynn, PSP stakeholder, Co Galway
11.20	Tea/Coffee
	PPI in research: Perspectives of lay partners
11.45	Our experience so far....	Public and Patient Partnership in Research group, HRB Primary Care Clinical Trials Network Ireland (CTNI)
12.05	Patients: Experts by experience	Dr Derick Mitchell, IPPOSI Caitriona Dunne, EUPATI trainee, Fighting Blindness
12.25	PPI: A personalised medicine view from the North	Dr Ed Goodall, Northern Ireland Cancer Research Consumer Forum
12.45	Inclusive research: Tracking the changes	Clare Inclusive Research group, Ennis, Co Clare
13.05	Lunch
	Parallel workshops	Lead facilitator
13.45	Initiating, building and sustaining partnerships	Edel Tierney, NUI Galway
	Developing a PPI strategy	Claire Planner, PRIMER, Manchester University
	Advocacy in action	Rob Hopkins, Clare Inclusive Research group
	Finding a fit: Choosing participatory methods for collaboration and research	Dr Pádraig MacNeela, NUI Galway
	Public and patient involvement: ethical issues	Dr Allyn Fives, NUI Galway
	Closing session
15.00	Working with children with chronic pain and their parents	Dr Siobhán O'Higgins, NUI Galway
15.20	Closing comments	Edel Murphy, HRB Primary Care CTNI